

History in the Heartland Summer Institute 2007
June 25-29, The Ohio State University

Monday, June 25

When	What	Where
9 AM	Check in: get parking pass, meal card, dorm key	Royer Hall
10 AM	Welcome Announcements	MacQuigg Laboratory Room 264
10:30	Plenary Session: The Market Revolution & the Coming of Capitalism” Christopher Clark	MacQuigg Room 264
Noon	Lunch	North Commons
1 PM	Primary Source Activity	MacQuigg Room 264
2 PM -	Project Groups Meet	Computer Labs, library, other places as determined by groups
4 -7 PM	Dinner service for Boarders	North Commons
Evening	On your own

Tuesday, June 26

7 AM	Breakfast Service begins	North Commons
8 AM	Announcements	MacQuigg 264
8:15	Concurrent Sessions “Social Change & Technology in America, 1790-1860” - Chris Clark “American Material Culture, 1790-1870” – Margaret Newell Including a field trip to the OSU Historic Costume & Textile Collection “Technology and Work in American History” - David Steigerwald “Creating Your Own History Documentary with PhotoStory and other Free Software” - David Staley	These will be held in the following rooms—the exact location of each session will be announced on Monday, June 25: MacQuigg Rooms 264, 155, 159 Watts Hall Room 395
Noon	Lunch	North Commons
1 PM	Project Groups Meet	To be determined by group
4 -7 PM	Dinner service for Boarders	North Commons
Evening	On your own

Wednesday, June 27

7 AM	Breakfast Service begins	North Commons
8:15 AM	Board Bus	Curl Drive Near Royer
9:30	Tour Adena: House, Museum, Gardens, & Grounds	Adena Estate, near Chillicothe
11:45	Lunch	Classroom, Adena
12:30 PM	Complete Tour of Adena House, Museum, Gardens, & Grounds	Adena Estate
2:30 PM	Board Bus and return to OSU
3:30 PM	Project Groups Meet	To be determined by group
4 -7 PM	Dinner service	North Commons
Evening	On your own

Thursday, June 28

7 AM	Breakfast Service begins	North Commons
8 AM	Announcements	MacQuigg 264
8:15	Concurrent Sessions “Ordinary Life in Extraordinary Groups” - Dick Shiels “The Rise of Big Business & the Persistence of Small Business” - Mansel Blackford “The Haymarket Riot of 1886: - Ted Dahlstrand “Work and Daily Life during World War II” - Allison Gilmore	These will be held in the following rooms—the exact location of each session will be announced on Monday, June 25: MacQuigg Rooms 264, 155, 159 Watts Hall Room 395
Noon	Lunch	North Commons
1 PM	Project Groups Meet	To be determined by group
6 PM	Hors D’Oeuvres, mingling (including cash bar)	Faculty Club
7 PM	Dinner Buffet	Faculty Club

Friday, June 29

7 AM	Breakfast Service begins	North Commons
8:00 AM	Announcements	MacQuigg 264
8:15	Presentations by Project Groups	MacQuigg 264
10:30	Check out of rooms	Nosker House & Royer Hall
11 AM	Lunch Service begins	North Commons
	End of Summer Institute	